Reverend Debbie Bain, Interspiritual Minister/Chaplain
I have been a spiritual explorer most of my life. I have been on a continuing journey to address my longing for connection with my Native American roots and communion with Spirit via interactions with others. My spiritual practice is grounded in Buddhist philosophy and my T’ai Chi Chih practice (accredited instructor since 2000.) My M.Div. from Meadville Lombard Theological School in Chicago, Palliative Chaplain Residency in Delaware and Palliative Chaplain Fellowship in Virginia still left me longing for the knowledge and connections I have been able to forge through my education at ChI. I am currently a hospice chaplain in Baltimore, Maryland. With compassion and curiosity, I commune with others from many spiritual pathways to enrich broad connection across traditions. I am deeply grateful for the support of my loving husband, Andrew, sons, Thomas and Jason Cole; and stepson, Timothy Bain.

Reverend Theresa Marie Domitrovich, Interspiritual Minister
I describe my extended path to the ChI interfaith community, and eventually to ChI Ordination, as “the discovery of liberating Light, my soul having been awakened and freed from the fear and ignorance of blind obedience.” To my husband Joe, ours sons, my parents, and dear friends, I offer my unending gratitude and love for their precious support throughout this journey. In June, 2019, I was offered a full-time Associate Chaplain position at the Renown Health Medical Centers in Reno, Nevada. Prior to this, I was a Pastoral Minister at St. Teresa of Avila Catholic Community in Carson City for 13 years. During this time, I completed ChI’s Interfaith Spiritual Direction Program. This work of stepping into the transformative healing power of Divine Compassion draws me ever deeper into the sacred mysteries of creation and the human heart. I am beyond grateful for the gift of life, and the opportunity to serve all beings of our shared Earth home. Reverend Kari Kopnick, Interfaith Chaplain, Interspiritual Minister
I have been married to my beloved partner Nic for 32 years and I’m the proud mother to our sons Michael, Peter, and Ryan and devoted friend to their partners Erin, Tram and Siena. I am the daughter of Lou and Donna, granddaughter of Ruth and Bea. We live in the shadow of Mt. Rainier and up the hill from the Salish Sea in the verdant Pacific Northwest which has taught me to love a thousand types of rain. I was called to the ministry as a young girl but long thought the day of a ritual of ordination would never arrive for me. I am a writer, a person who lives with depression, the holder of a hard-won bachelor’s degree, and a fierce activist working for justice and equity for all. I honor my fellow ordinands and our beloved ChI community for accompanying me on this journey. May the path continue to unfold. kari.kopnick.com, facebook.com/kari.kopnick, instagram.com/hi.its.kari

Reverend Channing Miller, Interfaith/Interspiritual Minister
I grew up in Colorado in the beauty of nature, and came from a family encouraging curiosity, creativity, awe and wonder - values following me through my life. As a young adult I began my career teaching elementary school in Palo Alto, then moved into a 40-year career in the corporate world. I retired in 2015 and began to explore a new path. A calling slowly emerged - one bringing my life together in Spirit, and I began working with Community Interfaith Councils. In 2017, I entered the Chaplaincy Institute Seminary and Community. ChI expanded my knowledge of religion, culture and spirituality as well as the key values and emphasis on deep listening, compassion, and honoring differences. This journey is preparing me for a pioneering role ministering in the common ground where all wisdom traditions meet. My family is my heart - a daughter, son, two grandsons, two sons-in-law, and nieces. Life passions include nature, beauty, photography, social justice, art, and writing. I am so very thankful for my life to live and to give.

Reverend Laura Prickett, Interfaith Chaplain
For a long time, I have felt called to offer spiritual support to people who, for various reasons, may have spiritual needs that are not met in formal religious settings. I am deeply grateful to the Chaplaincy Institute for all the preparation to provide spiritual care in many different settings, honoring the wisdom of all faith traditions, as well as spiritual experiences outside of religious traditions. My personal spiritual path has included experiencing spirituality through dreams, and the Chaplaincy Institute has supported me in honoring this aspect of my spiritual life and developing a capacity to support others in exploring spiritual aspects of dreams – both in preparation for ordination, and as part of receiving a Certificate in Spiritual Direction from the Chaplaincy Institute a few years ago. I am grateful to my two sons, Eric Prickett Hallsten and Jason Prickett Hallsten for their loving presence and for being spiritual companions on this journey. www.spiritmirrorstudio.com www.facebook.com/spiritmirrorstudio/
